

ARCH Membership Form

Thank you for expressing an interest in joining the Applied Research for Connected Health (ARCH) Technology Centre. ARCH is at the centre of an unparalleled connected health education and research infrastructure that spans a range of activities from gathering, analysing and interpreting data through the development of new knowledge and care models and implementing and evaluating change. ARCH is an industry driven centre providing access to world class clinicians, academics and patient cohorts to explore and evaluate potential connected health solutions for the global market.

ARCH provides a platform for Irish industry working in connected health to build revenue and R&D networks. The Centre currently has over 15 industry members who to-date have built trade relationships with global companies and accessed considerable R&D funding through the ARCH network.

Following approval of the five years hosting phase funding ARCH is expanding its industry membership and is inviting you to become involved. Membership will provide you with access to world class clinicians, academics and patient cohorts to explore and evaluate potential connected health solutions for the global market. The Centre will open doors to a network of connected health stakeholders across Europe and the USA building trade networks and providing access to R&D funding.

To become a member of ARCH complete the membership form below and return to moshea@arch.ie.

Yours Sincerely,

Michael O'Shea

Centre Director, ARCH
